

Sarah R. May

Miss Deborah Weston, Weymouth.

Leicester. Oct 10. 1848.

My dear Miss Weston,

Mr. May says he shall probably go to Weymouth this week, & I am glad of the opportunity to remind you & your sister Anne that the season is fast passing for your promised visit to me, & I hope after your sea-party is over you will have both the leisure, & inclination to give me a day or two, at least. Mr. May will be Very happy to come up with you whenever you will appoint a time.

I hear of Lucia & Emma at the delightful employment of packing & unpacking boxes.

I hope to be able to to arrange family concerns at home, to be with you at the Fair, for I am sure you will need ready hands & willing hearts more than ever, your ranks are so thinned by the wandering spirit which seems to have taken hold of the Abolitionists. We have just got a sewing circle going her to provide for a charity table, & we hope to go on quite triumphantly - we have two pieces of cotton already cut into garments, for the more favoured to buy to give the needy.

I want to see you particularly - how to talk about that embroidery - can we not make it up into some shape, so that they may never have to be stung up again, carpets bags - book & elbow cushions &c? Remember me

Kindly to all your circle at home & believe me, in all Sincerely, yours Sarah R. May.
